

PUBLIC NOTICE

Nicholas E. Ekblaw, Operator of 19th Hole at Circlestone, Adel, Georgia has applied to Cook County for a Retail Wine-On Premise Consumption, Retail Malt Beverage - On Premise Consumption and Distilled Spirits – On Premise Consumption License.

Action for this application will be taken by the Cook County Commissioners on February 18, 2019 at 6:00 p.m. Any person having knowledge of any reason why this application should not be approved is requested to appear in person at said meeting or to submit such reason in writing to Vicki S. Parrish, County Clerk, Cook County Board of Commissioner prior to said meeting date.

Request for Board of Commissioners' Action

From: Vicki Parrish, County Clerk Date: February 12, 2019

Subject: Circlestone Country Club – Alcoholic License Item Number: VIII-A

Circlestone Country Club is leasing their restaurant, 19th Hole at Circlestone, to Nicholas E. Ekblaw. The Georgia Dept. of Revenue – Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms Division is now requiring that the local license for alcohol sales be in the name of the person leasing the restaurant.

Mr. Ekblaw has presented an application that meets the local requirements for a license. He has been fingerprinted and his criminal history has been presented. The required advertisement has been in the Adel News. The Country Club and Restaurant are still owed by Mr. John Scarboro thereby meeting the residency requirement.

Chair will need a motion to approve or deny the application presented from Mr. Nicholas E. Ekblaw for an on premise malt beverage, wine and distilled spirits license to the 19th Hole at Circlestone.

Motion made by _____

Second made by _____

Any discussion: _____

Votes _____ yes _____ no

Motion carried/ failed