RE: AirMedCare Network Program

Dear Ms. Hughes,

Thank you very much for the opportunity to introduce you to the AirMedCare Network Program. It has been a pleasure speaking with you over the past few days and I truly appreciate your time and consideration of the program for the employees and families of Cook County, Georgia.

AirMedCare Network (AMCN) is a simple member-based program designed to eliminate the financial burden that can be associated with emergency air medical transport. Even with medical insurance, an air medical transport can leave you with significant and unexpected out-of-pocket expenses. As an AMCN member, you will have no out-of-pocket expenses related to your flight if flown by participating network provider.

The program is available through Air Medical Group Holdings (AMGH), a subsidiary of Global Medical Response (GMR). Global Medical Response is an industry leading medical transportation company formed by bringing together two industry leaders: Air Medical Group Holdings (AMGH) and American Medical Response (AMR). With more than 35,000 employees, we are dedicated to delivering compassionate, quality medical care, primarily in the areas of emergency and patient relocation services, in the United States, District of Columbia and around the world.

To date we operate through more than 320 rotary and fixed wing air ambulance bases across the United States, including Alaska and Hawaii. 12 supporting the state of Georgia. In Adel, you would best recognize us as Air Evac based in Tifton and Douglas, Georgia.

In effort to help you get better acquainted with who we are I have provided you with the following links to assist in your due diligence. I have also attached some collateral with respect to the membership program for your review.
