

Cook County E-911 Communications Officer

Cook County E-911 is accepting applications for a full-time communications officer.

Medical, Dental, and Vision Insurance

Retirement Options.

Starting pay: $14.02

Applicants should possess a high school diploma or GED, computer knowledge, excellent telephone skills, clear criminal history and able to follow directions. The qualified candidate will be required to work 12-hour, day or night shift.

Applicants must successfully complete a pre-employment drug test and physical upon offer of employment.

Applications will be accepted through

October 30, 2020

Applications can be picked up at

The Cook County

911 office at,

3295 County Farm Road

Adel, GA 31620.