EMS - The current EMS contract will expire in May. I have attached the contract for you all to review. This is just information for you all to be aware of. Other companies are beginning to contact me concerning the contract.

Would you like to discuss the contract with other companies now, or would you rather we put out an RFQ? If we do an RFQ we need advertise for 30 days, review and interview the applicants. I believe we should discuss the contract during a work session in January or February and then issue the RFQ.

Again, all of this is for information only, no decision has to be made right now.
